LIDIA MASLLORENS

Untitled - 2020. Acrylic and Bleach on paper. 183 x 179 cm.

CV

Lidia Masllorens holds a degree in Fine Arts from the University of Barcelona in the specialty of painting. She has also been trained in photography, sculpture and engraving.

She began exhibiting in art spaces of the Girona counties, such as the local spaces of Caldes de Malavella and Cassà de la Selva; and also in Galeria Nostrart, Tomàs de Lorenzana Culture House and the Valvi Foundation, in the city of Girona.

In 2013, she was awarded with the Painting Prize of the Fundació Vila Casas, which opened the doors to professionalization with Miquel Alzueta Gallery representing her work.

In 2016, she exhibited for the first time in Paris – at the Arcturus Gallery – and also made her solo debut at the LA Art Show, Los Angeles.

In 2017 she had a solo show in Denmark – at the Galerie Wolfsen-.

In 2018, she exhibited at the Miquel Alzueta Gallery in Barcelona, at Arcturus Gallery in Paris and also twice in Japan: individually, at The Gallery, in Takamiya – Hikone; and collectively, at the Caso-Contemporary Art Center in Osaka.

In 2019, she has exhibited solo in Antwerp, at Leonhard's Gallery and in Barcelona, at Fundació Vila Casas.

Her paintings have also been exhibited in numerous art fairs in Europe (Art Madrid, Art París, Antica Namur, Brussels Fine Art, Kunst Rai Amsterdam, Scope Basel...) and in the USA (Art Miami, LA Art Show, SOFA
